

The Subterranean Periscope is constructed for underground observations. It is equipped with two interior mirrors, a drilling device and light. Thus, underground examinations can be performed easily at a variety of sites.

