

The Windfocus is a set of simple telescope lenses mounted on a tripod. The larger one is slowly driven back and forth by wind power. The wind will alternate the focus of the object viewed through the device. The Windfocus is specifically suited for flat, wide landscape, where the wind can blow freely.